

Tudor Exploration-New Places and New Beginnings: What drives people to embark on journeys that involve danger or uncertainty?

Throughout Year Six the overall Inquiry Question is about change: What drives people to embark on journeys that involve danger or uncertainty? In the autumn term the children learn about Tudor exploration and the lives of the sailors. They will consider the focus school values of confidence, trust and respect which are explored through the inquiry.

Overarching Theme	What drives people to embark on journeys that involve danger or uncertainty?
Inquiry Questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● How do we prepare for a new adventure? ● What risks would you take for yourself and others? ● Is it possible to endure hardship in the hope of a better life?
Autumn Term	The Tudor Exploration of North America is the context of the inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Looking at life on board a Tudor ship and thinking about the hardships that people underwent in order to take part in discovering new lands. ● Thinking about the requirements for survival in an extreme situation and the concept of risk in everyday life. ● Considering why people take risks and how people manage risk.